

08.01.13

HAVE THE UNITED NATIONS AGENCIES ADAPTED TO THE 21ST CENTURY?

ACUNS VIENNA CONFERENCE

January 8-11 > UN Office in Vienna

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Abiodun Williams is President of the Hague Institute for Global Justice and Chair, ACUNS.

- Nuclear Technology and Sustainable Development (IAEA)
- Knowledge Management – Networks for Prosperity (UNIDO)
- The UN as an Honest Broker? Uses and Misuses of Data Sets (UNODC)
- Safety and Security Challenges to Nuclear Energy (IAEA)
- The Rise of the Global South (UNIDO)
- Prospects of Entry into Force of the CTBT: Ways to Promote its Ratification (CTBTO)
- Engaging Youth in the United Nations (UNIS)

Some of our events include:

- > Keynote Address:
A Mixed Record: The UN and Adaptation in the 21st Century
- > Lecture:
Austrian Peacekeeping Operations and A Look into the Future: Peacekeeping Operations in 2050
- > Panel Presentations

PLUS:

- > UN Career Presentation
- > Regional Academy on the United Nations
- > Reception sponsored by the Austrian Federal Ministry for European and International Affairs and taking place at the Diplomatic Academy of Vienna

CONFERENCE FEES

- > Fees will be collected at the registration desk. Cash only.
- 15 EUR | Practitioners
- 10 EUR | Students
- 5 EUR | One session per day

NEED MORE INFORMATION?

> Please email acuns.vienna@gmail.com or call the ACUNS Vienna Liaison Office at (+43) 669.1000.7099 acuns.org

A PROJECT OF THE ACADEMIC COUNCIL ON THE UNITED NATIONS SYSTEM IN COOPERATION WITH

